The manufacturers and the dealers will be required under this legislation to give full and accurate information of the tobacco they have on hand. Anybody who refuses to give the information is to be punished for the first offense with a fine of $300 to $1,000. For the second offense he is to be sent to jail for from thirty days to six months.

Holds Out-Of-Door Court.

During the intense heat of last Friday while Judge Walker was holding court in Harrodsburg, Col. E. H. Gaither, one of the leading attorneys at the Mercer county bar, fainted in the court room. It was during the motion hour and Judge Walker immediately adjourned court to the lawn in front of the old court house, where the final proceedings of the day were gone through with, and Col. Gaither being engaged in all the cases that would come up for trial at the remainder of the term, Judge Walker finally adjourned the session because of the illness of the stricken attorney.

Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson Passed To Rest.

The Ferris Wheel is one of the largest ever carried by a touring company, and the children's delight, the merrygoround, with its galloping steeds needs no introduction to children of any age. One of the free acts is Professor Cole, who dives from a hundred and twenty eight foot tower twice daily, at 4:30 and 10:00 P. M. Batiato's Royal Roman Band will furnish music continuously from 2 P. M. until the close of the nights gaiety.

Sweet potato plants for sale. I. C. Rucker Paint Lick Ky.

Tinsley Bros. sold a pair of five year old horses to Wilson Rodgers for $300.

Wilson Rodgers bought of White Marce a three year old horse for $150

John W. Francis sold a fancy harness mare to C. Gatliff of Williamsburg Monday for $225.

A. W. Kavanaugh sold and shipped his gray saddle horse to Mississippi, receiving $300, for him.

Wilson Rodgers sold to Jack Beasley of Stanford a five year old horse for $175. He also sold to Robert Burton a three year old horse for $155.

Squire J. P. Bourne bought a mule of J. W. Prewitt for $150 and one of Madison county parties for $100. He also sold a mule to Lincoln county parties for $135.

There is no danger whatever of overstocking the market with really good horses, no matter for what purpose intended. The topnotcher will always be in demand.

"Is an ill wind that blows nobody good." The extreme heat at such an early date has spoiled the cut worm crop, or at least we have heard no complaint from the farmers about that pest.

If every farmer would raise six pigs a year, that would provide twelve hams, twelve shoulders, and twelve sides, and hard, spareribs and sausage in addition. For a small family one ham or shoulder or side per week would furnish enough meat diet for thirty-six weeks.

A mule, the college experts say, is never sick but once in his life. This sickness is followed by a funeral. Two good spans of mules will last fifty years with good care and human treatment. They are not so fashionable as automobiles, but a heap more profitable.

Despairing of being able to profitably raise tobacco this year, because of the low prices of the weed, the high cost of labor and the scarcity of tobacco plants, many Nicholas county farmers are preparing to put in one of the biggest crops of watermelons ever planted in the county.

Many mules are being shipped to Decatur, Ala., from Tennessee and Kentucky and are being sold to the farmers in the Decatur and vicinity at good prices. Almost every week a carload of mules arrive and are soon disposed of in the markets of the Decatur.

There were only about thirty five cattle on the market Monday and few of those changed hands. The light showers and prospects of more have turned the attention of the farmers to their backyard crops and they are more occupied with catching up than they are in cattle trading.

English trotting mare, Lady Comhemere, who was 26 years old in June, 1895, in an effort to trot twenty miles inside of an hour, she covered the distance in 59 3-5 seconds. Only six American horses have ever trotted twenty miles in one hour and none of them since 1878.

Sim Weil who has been slopping a large number of cattle at Silver Creek, Madison county, this season, sold the lot to Nelson Morris, last week at $5.50 per cwt. There were two hundred in the bunch and they averaged 1,265. According to those who know there were about 40,000 slop fed cattle in Kentucky this year and the sloppers will lose the profit they made last year. This has been anything but a cattle year.

Circumstances seem to be combining against the raising of sheep in this state, the rigid quarantine laws are calculated to discourage the sheep industry, however, once the disease is stamped out, which the present rigid proceeding is calculated to do, we will have no more trouble along that line.

The price of wool has fallen off to an alarming extent, the best wool bringing only about 21 cents per pound, ranging down as low as 14 1/2 for the common and burly article.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back For An Old One—How It Is Done In Lancaster.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Lancaster citizen.

Mrs. T. S. Elkin, New Danville Pike, Lancaster, Ky., says: "I feel grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the benefit they have brought in my family. My back was very lame and there was a constant pain at the base of my spine. Doan's Kidney Pills went at once to the root of my trouble and entirely relieved me. Another member of my family was bothered by attacks of lumbago and at times this person's back was so weak and lame that walking was difficult. Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief in this case just as quickly as they did in mine. I have not the slightest hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, as I know they live up to all the claims made for them."

Simplicity of La Fontaine. Apropos of the simple, philosophical La Fontaine I either read or heard a touching trait of his simplicity. He was wise enough to despise money and spent all he had from not knowing its value or caring for its production. When reduced to nothing he lived with a friend who loved him and supplied the very few wants he had. This friend died. One who had known La Fontaine at his house immediately went to invite him to come and live with him. He met La Fontaine on the road to his chateau, and upon hearing the invitation the poet replied, "J'y allais" ("I was going there"). The narrative of his reply is very striking.—From Lady Holland's Journal.
